

Tribute to Sculpture “The Man of the Sea”

(4 m tall)

Ilha da Madeira

Paul do Mar - Sítio da Quebrada

Conjures up the precise moment face to the great ocean in an instant pervade the mind of the sailor's great moments his life and its : kind of instant film which intersect all times marked by life or by death, or by joy pain. Therefore, the pose is a firm challenge, and at the same time, respect contained.

Presents nude, without the guise of the time, because the man Sea as well as the great ocean and belongs all time. Merges with the immemorial past and with the time that is to come. In his flesh shows the marks of time without time, where spirit and matter signal their condition. Goes overboard with bringing the sea, in a fight Standing between life and death. And this is what lies its charm force.

The rope of life meanders always tense, bringing in their laps gift of time, where pleasure is suffering braid. as symbol of all that relates to life : family, friends, their land, not only now but for all time. And the hand on the chest is a sign that for their passion and the values that guide.

Standing before the sea and life, presenting the Blue Horizon the secrets and mysteries of the sacred and the secular, that moment / eternity of ultimate freedom that always happens when painful departure. In the past, the present and the future - it will.
